A front-facing view of a red and black TRAXXAS monster truck. The truck features a large, aggressive front bumper with the TRAXXAS logo, four round headlights, and a hood with a flame-like graphic. It has four large, black, treaded tires. The chassis is black and visible underneath the body. Dimension lines are overlaid on the image to show the truck's size: a vertical line on the left indicates a height of 5.7 inches (145 mm), and a horizontal line at the bottom indicates a width of 12.9 inches (327 mm) for the front and 13 inches (330 mm) for the rear.
